"Writing Proposal Network" Active Reading Strategy

Essential Question: What reading strategies can I use to navigate difficult texts?

Purpose of Activity: To actively read a text in order to understand what you are reading.

Scan the "Writing Proposal Network" with your partner. Identify words you think are important. Write them in the following boxes. You must fill up all 26 boxes.

When you are finished with your word identification, write a summary of the article using the words in the above boxes.